Waists and Skirts

88c and $1.69

Worth to $2

Worth to $5

Values are judged by comparisons. We have to go back to the Palais Royal Sale of August 22, 1907, for bargains the equal of these now offered. And, too, we have to know of the vogue of to-day. Two years since, and last year, very elaborate and showy designs were correct. This summer the ideal waist is less showy, but daintier. Witness the infinitesimally small tucks and stitching, the fairylike laces, and the exquisite hand embroidery of the garments offered at $1.69. Have one of these waists made for you at an art needlework store—you could not have equal daintiness produced elsewhere—and will not cost be at least $10? At 88c are both Lingerie and Tailored Waists and Skirts, many of which were made to retail at $2.
